CHARITIES WEEK 2016 Please support and donate generously towards Charities Week 2016, an Archdiocesan annual fundraising project. Proceeds will enable Agape Village, a project of Caritas Singapore and many Catholic organisations under its umbrella to continue their work in reaching out to those in need. These include the poor, families, youth and children, prisoners, migrant workers, persons with HIV/AIDS, persons with physical and mental challenges, and overseas humanitarian aid. Pick up a Charities Week appeal envelope this weekend and contribute generously. You can mail your donation directly to Caritas Singapore (for cheques only) or drop them at your parish. For walk-in donations, please visit us at Caritas Singapore, 55 Waterloo Street #08-01, Catholic Centre, Singapore 187954. Your contribution will make a difference in the lives of those in need. For more information, please contact us at 6338 3448 or visit our website at www.caritas-singapore.org.

READINGS: Sunday Missal (Year C) Pg 99 PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL: Pg 103

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord is compassion and love.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK: MON 29 February - SAT 5 March 2016

MON: 2 KGS 5:1-15AB, LK 4:24-30 TUE: DN 3:25, 34-43, MT 18:21-35 WED: DT 4:1, 5-9, MT 5:17-19 THU: JER 7:23-28, LK 11:14-23 FRI: HOS 14:2-10, MK 12:28-34 SAT: HOS 6:1-6, LK 18:9-14

The Lectionary for Mass

First Reading: This familiar yet powerful passage offers us a glimpse of the commission given to Moses by God. God emphasises that he is the God of continuity; this experience is not separated from what has come before, although this is the first moment that the people receive the name of God.

Responsorial Psalm 103: The psalm underlines the reading from Exodus. God is faithful, just, mercy, kind and always attentive. Those who believe in him need to practice both praise and remembrance. Forgetfulness is a chronic human issue, and the psalm presents a litany of the qualities of God that must be remembered.

Second Reading: Here, Paul recounts the wondrous deliverance of the Exodus. Notice the language of Baptism that is used. Paul is inspired to look at these wonders through the lens of Christian Baptism and the Holy Spirit. He also warns that the story bears lessons for those who would follow Christ.

Gospel: The stories of cruelty and devastation found in this Gospel are exclusive to Luke; they appear in no other Gospel or, for that matter, historical narrative of the time. They are, however, in keeping with what we know of the considerable persecution that the Jews and others experienced under Pilate. These stories, including that of the fig tree, serve to underline the theme of the need for repentance now, not at some time in the future.

March – Month of St. Joseph

The month of March is dedicated to St. Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the foster father of the Lord. St. Joseph was the favourite Saint of St. Teresa of Avila, and of many popes, including St. Pius X and St. John XXIII, who wrote: “O glorious Joseph! Who concealed your incomparable and regal dignity of custodian of Jesus and of the Virgin Mary under the humble appearance of a craftsman and provided for them with your work, protect with loving power your sons [and daughters], especially entrusted to you. You know their anxieties and sufferings, because you yourself experienced them at the side of Jesus and His Mother. Do not allow them, oppressed by so many worries, to forget the purpose for which they were created by God” (Prayer for Workers). Joseph is the patron saints of fathers, of workers, and of the universal Church. St. Joseph, pray for us!

24 Hours for the Lord

(extract from Misericordiae Vultus, Bull of Indiction of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy by Pope Francis)

“17. The season of Lent during this Jubilee Year should also be lived more intensely as a privileged moment to celebrate and experience God’s mercy. How many pages of Sacred Scripture are appropriate for meditation during the weeks of Lent to help us rediscover the merciful face of the Father! We can repeat the words of the prophet Micah and make them our own: You, O Lord, are a God who takes away iniquity and pardons sin, who does not hold your anger forever, but are pleased to show mercy. You, Lord, will return to us and have pity on your people. You will trample down our sins and toss them into the depths of the sea (cf. 7:18-19).

The pages of the prophet Isaiah can also be meditated upon concretely during this season of prayer, fasting, and works of charity: “Is not this the fast that I choose: to loosen the bonds of wickedness, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh? Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday. And the Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your desire with good things, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters fail not” (58:6-11).

The initiative of “24 Hours for the Lord,” to be celebrated on the Friday and Saturday preceding the Fourth Week of Lent, should be implemented in every diocese. So many people, including young people, are returning to the Sacrament of Reconciliation; through this experience they are rediscovering a path back to the Lord, living a moment of intense prayer and finding meaning in their lives. Let us place the Sacrament of Reconciliation at the centre once more in such a way that it will enable people to touch the grandeur of God’s mercy with their own hands. For every penitent, it will be a source of true interior peace.....”

WAY OF THE CROSS - held every Friday during Lent at 5.30 pm except Friday 4 Mar ‘16. Evening mass will follow after prayers.

TICKET SALE for the Dedication Thanksgiving Dinner - 2 Jul ‘16 at Raffles City Convention Centre Members of SPP Ministries can purchase the tables for the Dedication Thanksgiving Dinner from the Church Office from 1 January 2016. Public Sale will start in Feb ‘16. Tickets are priced at $1500 per table of 10 persons. Please check with your Ministry Leader or the Church Office for more information.

CHURCH OF SAINTS PETER & PAUL BUILDING FUND – An estimate of 30% of items in the church conservation project is deemed strictly as “conservation works” and we have already raised $2,986,565/- from the account “PMF - Church of Sts Peter and Paul”. The figure above is sufficient to cover 30% of items being conserved; raising more than 30% through this account (PMF- Church of Sts Peter & Paul) means that the balance will have to remain in this account until another conservation project has been initiated. Further, the funds raised through the above account cannot be used for maintenance other than conservation works. As such, we have ceased to accept tax exemption donations for the restoration of our church. However, we hope that you will continue to donate generously to our Building Fund for many other maintenance works. From now onwards, crossed cheques should be made payable to: Church of SPP Building Fund. Donor may provide his/her name, address and contact phone no. Thank you for your generous donations and support.

DAILY PRAYER - Our SPP Church prays the Lauds led by the Carmelite Friars every weekday at 7.00am before the 7.20am Mass.
